Rev. Carol E. Parrish, Ph.D.

Recognized as an inspired spiritual leader, Carol stirs people to rejoice in their oneness with God. Many find hope in her lucid explanations of how certain fundamental truths that underlie all religions guide us in these changing times.

Ordained in 1971, Carol left a promising business career to devote herself to interfaith Christian ministry and lecturing in the human potential movement. She was led by spiritual guidance in 1981 to establish the community of Sparrow Hawk Village in the foothills of the Ozarks near Tahlequah, Oklahoma, where she is president of Light of Christ Community Church, a partner church of the International Association of Community Churches. She is also academic dean of Sancta Sophia Seminary, which is accredited by the Accrediting Commission International for Schools, Colleges, and Theological Seminaries, Inc.

Carol derives great pleasure from sharing with others and is a highly sought lecturer and workshop leader on the national and international circuit. She has traveled to many countries lecturing, teaching, and leading groups.

Among Dr. Parrish's many honors is the 2005 International Nebolsin Medal for outstanding service in the field of education for the common good of humanity and the Earl Award for Religious Futurist of the Year for "exceptional achievement in the field of religious futures activities."

Her latest book, Sophia Sutras, Introducing Mother Wisdom, examines the tradition of the divine feminine, its history, meaning, and revival. Among her other popular books is an expanded second edition of The New Dictionary of Spiritual Thought and the three-volume set of Adventure in Meditation—Spirituality for the 21st Century. Each of the three volumes received the 1996-97-98 Athena Award for Mentoring Excellence.
